

MC ALUMNI PROFILE:

Corine Jim Volk

“Attend as much education as you can, do everything and take it all in. Never doubt your career choice, work hard and work Saturdays!”

Corine graduated from the Hairstyling program at the Red Deer campus in 1992. Prior to starting a career in the beauty industry, she attended University where she completed a Bachelor of Education and Arts degree. With a family owned salon and no hairstylists in the family, she decided to pursue a career in hair.

Corine has dedicated over 25 years in the industry as an entrepreneur and a hairstylist. Throughout her career, she has experienced firsthand the growth of the industry and the opportunities available for professionals. In addition to being an owner of multi-unit salons, she is the Senior Executive of Marketing and Branding at Chatters Canada LTD. From managing Chatters’ national advertising funds to booking stylist education, her biggest lesson learned is the importance of hard work, and the value of employees

ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- Owner of Safari Salon and Spa, and Green Apple Hair Salon
- Co-owner and shareholder of several Chatters Salon franchise locations.
- Co-founder of Tommy Gun’s Original Barber.

