

MC ALUMNI PROFILE:

Dawn Bradley

“Don’t give up! The industry can be tough... but it is so rewarding and so worth it... There is always so much to learn... no matter how long you’ve been in the industry.”

Dawn is a 2002 Hairstyling graduate from Saskatoon. Her career has taken her across the world to do what she’s most passionate about: Hair.

“I never thought I would be a hairstylist, and if someone would have told me I would make a career out of it I wouldn’t have believed them... I feel so lucky to have fallen into a career and industry that I am so very passionate about”.

Today, she is the owner of Dawn Bradley Hair in Calgary, AB and an Instagram sensation, @dawnbradleyhair.

With over 14 years of experience as a hairstylist, educator and entrepreneur, she has trained and worked with the best of the best in the industry. In London, England, she trained under and worked alongside Anthony Nader, and was featured in London’s Lifescapes Magazine. Her career took her to Sydney, Australia, where she was the master colourist for an award-winning salon. Dawn’s passion for the industry took her to Paris, where she learned the latest European techniques and trends.
